The U.S. Capitol

Tours of the Capitol are given both by the Capitol Guide Service (groups of up to 40 persons) or by a member of our staff (no more than 15 persons). Tours of the Capitol include visits to the Crypt, Rotunda, National Statuary Hall, the Old Supreme Court Chamber, and the House Gallery.

The White House

Tours of the Executive Residence are once again open to the public and available Tuesday through Saturday from 7:30am to 11:30am. Tours of the White House fill quickly, so it is best to get your request in far ahead of your trip. Tours of the White House are self-guided and include the Cross Hall, the State Dining Room, the East Room, and the Blue, Red and Green Rooms.

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing

Congressional VIP tours of the Bureau are available Monday through Friday at 8:15am and 8:45am. Please note that the further in advance a request is made, the better chances are for getting a reserved tour spot. Tours are approximately 40 minutes.

The Supreme Court

Tours are available Monday through Friday at 2:00pm when the court is not sitting. This tour lasts approximately 30 minutes.

The Library of Congress

Congressional VIP tours are available Monday through Friday at 8:30am and 2:00pm. A member of the Library staff will guide you on a tour of the Jefferson Building and introduce you to the “American Treasures” exhibit.

The National Archives

A special “Behind the Scenes” tour of the Archives is available Monday through Friday at 10:15am and 1:15pm. This tour includes a viewing of select original documents from the Archive's holdings, participation in staff-led hands-on activities, and the Rotunda containing the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights.

The National Postal Museum

Guided VIP tours are available daily at 11:00am and 1:00pm.

The Kennedy Center

VIP Tours of the Kennedy Center are available daily at 10:00am and 1:00pm. The tour includes visits to the various performing arts facilities used at the Kennedy Center.

George Washington's Mount Vernon Estate and Gardens

Congressional VIP tours are available until October 31st. This is a walking tour of the grounds. Visitors may then take a self guided tour of the Mansion. Admission is $11.00 for adults, $10.50 for seniors, $5.00 for children 6-11. Admission for children 5 and under is free.

Please note FBI, State Department and Pentagon tours are closed until further notice.
